

21 May Homenaje a Bety y Jyri en Casota, Oaxaca, México ... be a space where we can freely express our ideas as part of the democratic process. This freedom must be regularly exercised and vigorously defended, or else it will be trampled on by the repressive nature of the state. This is why several of our members joined with the direct action on. Thursday, June 17th that covered our city's downtown core with the very posters our comrades were arrested for putting up two ...
